

HON. HENRY J. WALSH

Born November 12, 1943, in Brooklyn, New York

Served as an officer in the United States Air Force

Since 1994, Inn of Court Member and Director for the Organizational Charter 228

Judge Henry J. Walsh presently Supervising Civil Judge, was appointed to the Ventura Superior Court in 1998 by former governor Pete Wilson. Prior to his appointment to the bench, Walsh was practicing as a civil litigation partner at the law firm of Lawler, Bonham, and Walsh beginning in 1985. He also worked as an attorney at Lawler and Ellis from 1980 to 1985 and for Cosmo, Walsh, and Cho from 1971 to 1980.

Education

- Stanford University, BA 1965; Commission 2nd Lt., USAF, March 1965
- Loyola University (Los Angeles) Law School, JD, 1970

Professional Experience

Admitted to practice – State Bar of California, United States Supreme Court, United States Circuit Court of Appeal for the 9th Circuit, United States District Court for the Central, Southern and Eastern Districts of California.

Private practice of Law in Ventura County 1971-1998 with emphasis on the trial of tort litigation.

Judicial Experience

- Appointed to the Ventura County Superior Court by Gov. Pete Wilson in June of 1998;
- Re-elected without opposition in 2000 and 2006;
- Judicial assignments have been civil trials and family law;
- Presently presiding Judge of the Appellate Division of the Superior Court;
- Presently chair of the Superior Court jury/grand jury committee;
- Presently co-chair of the Expedited Jury Trial pilot program;